

OUR VIBRATIONAL/SPIRITUAL JOURNEY

Attunement Weekend with Paul Price

July 5 – 7, 2019

We will be blessed to have Paul Price and Nancy Rathlou here at Oakwood Retreat Center as our guides on an expansive journey into a land of expanded awareness of what is being called forth from humanity (each one of us in particular!) in these days of wonder and horror; transformation and desecration.

Paul and Nancy have provided a steadfast and loving surround for the Oakwood Community for many years. What they have brought into our lives has played an essential role in letting Oakwood be an oasis of respect, loving kindness and permission to take whatever next step is yours to take. We are thrilled to have them here and to let you share in what they have to bring.

Here are a few words from Paul

The art of dowsing reveals the magnificent invisible, spiritual ley lines that circle and intersect around our beautiful planet, year after year.

I was just a young boy when my father gave me a small, Y-shaped branch, freshly cut from an apple tree. He showed me how to hold it and then told me that we needed to find a well for our newly purchased piece of land.

I found the perfect location for our well very quickly, as I had no concept that would have me doubt the efficacy of the dowsing rod. This was my first experience of honouring and trusting the invisible!

From that introduction, my experience grew to finding the magnetic grid of ley lines that circle and protect our planet. In time, I was to discover that the pyramids, stone circles and ancient cathedrals were all built on spots where these lines intersect. These intersections intensify the radiant power of the energy the lines carry.

The natural world; animals, plants and trees all hold this protective field too. Humankind is not exempt. We too have a vital part to awaken to and play, in providing a loving blessing for our planet and each other. In these troubled times, it is this loving vibration, flowing between us and along these ley lines, that will turn things around.

In times past, Gaia, the earth mother, simply did a restart when the loving and protective vibration got too thin: the Ice Age, floods, cataclysms, etc.

Let us come together and co-create, not disintegrate!
